A RESOLUTION URGING THE REINSTATEMENT OF A COMPULSORY EDUCATION LAW

WHEREAS, the State of Mississippi has at the present time no law requiring the attendance of children in school; and

WHEREAS, education for the children of Mississippi is vital if our children are to be prepared properly for securing employment in our increasingly technological society; and

WHEREAS, such education is also vital if our children are to become informed, responsible citizens and voters of tomorrow;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the undersigned organization urges the Governor and the Legislature of the State of Mississippi to pass such laws as are necessary to reinstate compulsory education in the state of Mississippi and to provide for the enforcement and implementation of such a compulsory education law.
